Here's a little"business tip" from Maryland that might help many across the country.
Sell condoms or vitamins.
There, you just went from "non- essential" to "ESSENTIAL".
If the "adult stores/theaters" in Maryland can stay open as Essential, because they sell condoms,

Then any business can reopen Monday!! Reopen, wear a mask, practice distancing when possible, wash your hands. And put a fishbowl full of condoms in the front with a sign, $1.00 each.

Heck, a well known cosmetic company in the area immediately started selling"vitamins" and they are open and going strong.

"Essential" because those items are "health related" and necessary.

2/ Netflix reportedly holds the right to keep renewing these shows, irrespective of Disney's preferences. Disney may be entering Netflix's territory with Disney+, but that didn't drive the cancellations. Netflix was making a rationale decision based on quality, cost, viewership

With the talk of "phased" reopening the DS is all a quiver. They don't want the economy to recover, and if the country is opened how do they continue the threat?🤔

Drones, apps, software, all designed to control, to tell you what to do, or Else! Now they want "Zones". Hot Covid zones, mostly in cities, cough, Dem sanctuary cities, cough. These will be the highest risk zones. They will maintain greater lockdown in these zones, for "safety" of course 😡 This will cut down on crime allowing them to

I just saw a woman take off her mask and use it to pick up her dogs fresh business. Waiting to see if she puts it back on. Will keep you informed. Film at 11pm😁

This is a developing story: She is on the phone. She is using the ear straps and carrying it around like a tiny basket. Unnamed sources say the dog had Indian food for lunch. More later. Can anyone tell I'm bored? How long is she going to carry it around? 😬

She switched hands. Has already walked past 2 trash cans

Maryland has a lot of "halfway houses", such as VOA. These are for prisoners, mostly Federal, who have been released early, for whatever reason. These houses receive a lot of federal funds to house, treat, and reintegrate these people back into society.

These halfway houses across Maryland are emptying out, for safety because of having a lot of people in close proximity, and moving them all into hotels. Another building with a lot of people in close proximity 😬
